Ancient And Honorable Artillery Company Honors 159 Unknown Soldier Dead

The memory of 150 unknown Massachusetts Civil War soldiers who died in the Battle of Gettysburg were honored in ceremonies this morning at the Soldiers' National Monument and a Massachusetts tablet by the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts.

Maj. Gen. Reginald A. Maurer, captain commander of the unit, and Massachusetts Governor John E. Volpe placed wreaths during the brief ceremonies to commemorate the memory of these unknown dead.

The service was one of four in which the Artillery Company will participate in an eight-day tour which saw them Sunday honor the dead at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington National Cemetery, Va., and on Tuesday they will dedicate an Ancient and Honorable Artillery plaque in the National Guard memorial building in Washington, D. C.

The group later in the week will hold ceremonies at the Massachusetts monument on the site of the Battle of New Orleans.

PLACE 2 WREATHS

General Maurer, in placing the wreath at the monument, said:

"It has been 47 years since our Artillery Company of Massachusetts came to Gettysburg. It is fitting that in the centennial year of the Civil War we should again come here.

"We now stand on the same ground as Abraham Lincoln did when he made his immortal address to Americans. We feel greatly honored and proud to have come here to place this wreath."

The company then moved about 50 yards southwest of the monument to a tablet that marked the area where the 159 unknown soldiers from Massachusetts are buried.

Gov. Volpe, who laid the wreath at the tablet, said:

"We are gathered here today in memory . . . in grateful memory, of these Civil War men who, during that great war, gave their lives that this nation of ours might live. They fought that we might be secure; they died that we might live. We are conscious of their generous sacrifice. Let us be ever mindful of their noble purpose."

One hundred ten men and officers of the company formed in the pressroom of the Hotel Gettysburg at 10:30 o'clock this morning and paraded down Baltimore St. to the cemetery. The unit was accompanied by the Gettysburg College band and the Army Reserve Officers Training Corps of the college.

More than 150 persons attended a reception and luncheon at the Hotel Gettysburg following the ceremonies. This afternoon they toured the battlefield and later returned to Washington for a banquet tonight.

Mayor John Collins, of Boston, accompanied the group here.

PROBE SERIES OF BURGLARIES OVER WEEKEND

Borough police today were investigating a series of burglaries and larcenies over the weekend in which thieves earned as much as $600 and as little as 50 cents, plus other minor items at other establishments.

The largest haul netted robbers between "$500 and $600" Sunday evening at the Gettysburg Motor Lodge, 380 Steinwehr Ave. According to Sgt. Daniel E. Miller of the borough police, who conducted the investigations, entry was made by removing screens from outside windows and climbing into the lobby. Miller said the money was removed from a place that apparently "was convenient" to the robbers.

Several offices in the Weaver Building on Lincoln Square were burglarized Saturday evening or early Sunday morning, according to Sgt. Miller. The largest haul there was not more than $50 taken from a petty cash box at the offices of the Gettysburg Battlefield Preservation Association. A spokesman said the amount is "really undeterminable," but usually there is not more than $50 in the box. The thieves also stole 89 commemorative medals.

OTHER THEFTS

At the Boot and Shoe Workers' Union offices in the Weaver Building desks and drawers were ransacked but there was only 50 cents (Continued On Page 2)

LAST MONTH SET 30-YEAR HEAT RECORD

Although the mercury dropped within five degrees of the freezing mark on the last day of the month, the 30-day period that ended Saturday night was the hottest September in Gettysburg in 30 years, Gettysburg Times weather records showed today.

Thirteen of the month's 30 days saw high readings in the 90's and some of the hottest nights of the summer came in September. Five nights had "low readings of 70 degrees or above."

NEAR NORMAL FOR YEAR

September's rainfall was 3.58 highest mark set here by any month but most of that rain fell in an hour the afternoon of September 7 and was of little benefit to growing crops and water supplies. The September 7 rainfall totaled 2.79 inches. There was rain on only seven other days last month and no other showers brought as much as a half inch of rain.

Last month's rain brought the total for the first nine months of the year to 31.29 inches, which is only 0.12 inches short of normal. Earlier surpluses had been offset by rainfall shortages in July and August while September had a surplus of 0.23 inches.

One of the weather highlights of the month was the severe electrical and rainstorm which hit the community in midafternoon on September 7. Lightning caused damage to a number of properties and utility lines were harder hit than by any other storm of the season. Fogs, some of them very dense, shrouded the area on a number of mornings.

Miss Donna Craun Rites Held Today

Funeral services for Miss Donna M. Craun, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward K. Craun, Biglerville R. 1, who died Thursday afternoon at Walter Reed Hospital, Washington, D. C., of leukemia, were held this morning at 10 o'clock at the Prince of Peace Episcopal Church with the Rev. Harold Mowen officiating. Interment was in Bender's Church Cemetery. The pallbearers were George and James Witt, John Catchings, Dale Heiges, Richard Guise and Edward Angeli.

OFFICE BUSY ON DIVORCE CASES TODAY

Divorce business was much on evidence in the prothonary's office this morning.

Judge W. C. Sheely had handed down a decree divorcing Robert E. Harbaugh, Fairfield R. 1, from Louise Mae (Shindecker) Harbaugh, Charman. The couple had wed in 1942.

Attorney Ronald J. Hagerman filed a complaint in divorce for Donald B. Hess, Hanover R. 1, who is seeking a divorce from Esther A. (Koontz) Hess, 26 Carlisle St., on grounds of indignities. The couple wed in 1950.

AFTER 44 YEARS

Attorney S. M. Raffensperger, as master in the divorce action brought by Nora I. Wyatt, Gettysburg R. 5, against George D. Wyatt, New Oxford R. 2, filed his recommendation for the divorce on grounds of cruel and barbarous treatment and indignities.

According to Attorney Raffensperger's report of a hearing before him the Wyatts wed November 10, 1917, in Wilkesboro, N. C. They separated April 2, 1961. According to the testimony of Mrs. Wyatt, on that date her husband grabbed her by the hair, hit her in the left eye, threw her to the floor and put a gun in her ribs and demanded a certain bank book.

Attorney Raffensperger's report said Mrs. Wyatt's physician testified that she was treated by him for contusions of the left shoulder and chest and contusions of the back of the head following the incident. The physician said he had treated Mrs. Wyatt on another occasion and had called her husband in and told him that his wife had a bad heart condition. (Continued On Page 2)

WORLD WAR 1 VETERAN DIES

Charles F. Kahnhauser, 64, Abbotstown R. 1, died Sunday afternoon at 1:45 o'clock at the Hanover Hospital where he had been a patient for 10 days.

A native of Brooklyn, N. Y., a son of the late Henry and Dorothy (Meyer) Kahnhauser, he has resided at Abbotstown R. 1 for the last nine years.

He was a member of the Central City Lodge 305, F and A. M., Syracuse, N. Y., and of the Consistory and Tigris Temple of Syracuse, and of the Abbotstown Fire Co.

TO BE BURIED HERE

During World War I he served as a private in Battalion A, 31st Artillery, from October 22 to December 4, 1918. He was employed by the Interchemical Corporation of Philadelphia as sales manager and sales representative in the metal decorating producing division for 45 years, as of last July, and continued as (Continued On Page 2)

Mrs. Gutmann, 80, Dies At Baltimore

Mrs. Minnie A. Gutmann, 80, 134 Hanover St., died Sunday morning at 3:45 o'clock at the home of a son, John E. Gutmann, in Baltimore. Death followed an illness of several months. She had been in the Warner Hospital in August and then was taken to her son's home.

A widow of John J. Gutmann, she had lived in Gettysburg at intervals for much of the last 25 years and was a member of St. James Lutheran Church here.

Surviving are three sons, John E. and Charles H. Gutmann, both of Baltimore, and George F. Gutmann, Norfolk, Va., a former member of the faculty of Gettysburg College and now a field representative for the American Red Cross. There are also three sisters and two brothers residing in Allentown.

Funeral services Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Stephens Funeral Home, 1335 Linden St., Allentown, with a viewing there Tuesday evening. Burial in Moravian Cemetery at Emmanus, Pa.

Reds Suggest Temporary U.N. Secretary With Three Deputies, Without Veto

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The Soviet Union has announced a plan to name a temporary chief of the U.N. secretariat unhampered by a veto. But the candidate would have to meet with Soviet approval.

The proposal, previously reported by informed diplomats, was spelled out Sunday night in a statement from the Soviet delegation.

The General Assembly would choose a man to head the U.N. secretariat until April 1963, but he would have to work in cooperation with three deputies. None would have a veto. The assembly would make its selection on the recommendation of the Security Council.

REDS HAVE VETO

The Soviets have a veto in the Security Council and could reject any candidate they disliked.

April 1963 would have marked the end of the second five-year

DRIVER TRIES IN VAIN TO OUTRUN COPS

Kenneth Ray Reed, 25, Aspers-Sunday paid a fine of $25 and costs on a charge of reckless driving and a $10 fine and costs on a charge of driving without an operator's license.

State Police placed the charges against Reed before Justice of the Peace Frederic Griest Jr., Flora Dale, after coming upon Reed "in a cloud of dust in a clump of trees" between Aspers and Peach Glen.

The police were looking for Reed because he had passed them several miles away near the Aspers intersection at a speed they estimated at "in excess of 70."

At the time of passing, the officers were headed toward Aspers and Reed toward Peach Glen, near Aspers.

The officers turned their car around as quickly as they could, but had lost sight of Reed by that time. They followed as rapidly as possible on the winding highway and then came around a curve to see a cloud of dust off the side of the highway.

Walking into the grove of trees and dust they found Reed's car. He told them he had lost control on the curve and the car left the highway. Fortunately, police said, the clump of trees hit by Reed were small and bent easily and thus there was no damage to the car.

Police said Reed told them he tried to outrun them because he had no driver's license.

Cycle Is Destroyed By Blaze Sunday

Gettysburg firemen were called twice over the weekend to fires. At one there was no damage and at the other a motorcycle was completely destroyed.

Shortly after noon Saturday, firemen responded to an alarm at the rear of Roy E. Coldsmith Roofers, W. High St. Upon arrival, they found old roof chip-pings and rubbish being burned at the rear of the building.

The other fire occurred about 6 o'clock Sunday evening two miles out the Lincoln Highway East when a motorcycle, owned by Terry Miller, of Hanover, caught fire. Linn said the motorcycle, worth $300, was destroyed.

MORSE SEES COUNTY GOING DEMOCRATIC

More than 1,000 Democrats, gathered Saturday afternoon at the Adams County Fairgrounds between East Berlin and Abbottstown, were told they have a good chance of returning Adams County to the Democratic column.

Otis Morse IV, state chairman of the Democratic party, noting that Adams County Democrats through registration activities have been steadily reducing the Republican majority until now the Democrats are only 717 behind the Republicans and said: "If you continue at the pace you have, the majority of registrants within a year can be Democratic, this returning Adams County to the political affiliation it held for many years."

Morse praised the Young Democrats of Adams County for winning second place in the state in competition for the "most outstanding Young Democratic Club" for 1960-61.

JUSTICE ALPHER SPEAKS

State Supreme Court Justice Anne X. Alpern spoke on the duties of her office. Recently appointed to a vacant post, she is seeking a full 21-year term at the election this fall.

Pennsylvania Lt. Gov. John Morgan Davis, who introduced Miss Alpern, spoke on the record of the Democratic administration of the state during the last three years and declared: "It is a record of outstanding achievement." Mrs. Louise John, vice chairman of the state Democratic committee, outlined the activities of women in party functions.

Russell Milnes, Beaver County treasurer, who won the honor of "Outstanding Democrat of Pennsylvania" at the state convention of Young Democrats this summer, urged additional participation by young people in party affairs, "politics in general and as candidates for office."

INTRODUCES CANDIDATES

County Democratic Chairman Fred G. Klunk presided at the picnic at which more than 600 pounds of beef were served.

GETTYSBURG IS NEARING HIGH TOURIST TOTAL

If 79,766 tourists visit the Gettysburg Battlefield during October, November and December, the all-time record for visitation, set 23 years ago in 1938, will be broken.

National Park officials said today that 130,656 persons visited the field in September, bringing the total visitation so far this year to 1,474,469, or 79,765 less than the all-time record of 1,554,234 set in 1938 during the 75th anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg and the last reunion of the Blue and Gray.

Last October 111,110 visitors toured the field, last November 58,407 were here and last December the visitation was 15,254, making a total of 184,771 for the last three months of 1960.

Thus park officials were fairly certain that 1961 will break the mark that has stood for more than two decades. If the weather remains normal for October, officials said, there is a good possibility that the record may be exceeded by the end of this month.

CAMP OVER WEEKEND

The 1,474,469 figure for the first nine months of 1961 compares to 1,158,494 during the comparable nine months last year. Last month's 130,656 compares to 111,170 for September a year ago.

MIDWAY MAN FACES MURDER CHARGE AFTER SHOOTING WIFE

An Adams County cannery worker was charged with murder Saturday night in the rifle slaying of his wife in Hanover Saturday afternoon.

Hanover borough police said that Melvin Henry Fair, 42, of 236 South St., in Midway, Adams County, shot and killed his wife, Ruth L. Fair, 38, at the home of Mrs. Fair's sister, Mrs. Gerald Mummert, 636 E. Walnut St., Hanover. The shooting occurred at about 4 p.m.

Fair was charged at the direction of the district attorney's office, the information filed before Hanover Justice of the Peace William Y. Naill Jr. The man was committed to the York County Prison late Saturday night to await a hearing.

According to police these are the events that led up to the fatal shooting — Mr. and Mrs. Fair had an argument Friday night concerning the wife's going to a party for her mother at the Mummert home. The argument was renewed Saturday morning and Mrs. Fair, with her daughter, Barbara, left the house on foot. They were picked up shortly afterward by Mrs. Mummert and arrived at the Mummert home in Hanover at about 8:30.

REFUSED TO LEAVE

Approximately 10 minutes later Fair arrived at the Mummert home and talked to his wife for about 15 minutes, attempting to get her to come home with him. She refused, and he left. He returned at 9:30 and made another attempt.

Fair made the last appearance at the Mummert home shortly before 4 p.m. Mrs. Fair again refused to go home with him. He left the house, went to his car, and returned with a .30 caliber rifle.

Mrs. Mummert ran next door to try to get help from the police while Fair again tried to convince his wife to go home with him.

RETURNED AFTER ACT

Mrs. Mummert was on her way back into the house by the front door when the shot was fired. Police said that, after Fair shot (Continued On Page 3)

TIMES CARRIER RANKS 10TH IN ENTIRE STATE

Neal Leister, 13, Gettysburg Times carrier in Littlestown and son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Leister, 34 W. Myrtle St. there, won 10th place in the contest to select the "Outstanding Pennsylvania Newspaper Boy of the Year" on Friday at Philadelphia.

Lt. Gov. John Morgan Davis presented the top award to Clarence M. Dittlow III, June honor graduate of Camp Hill High School, at the annual banquet of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers' Association in the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel. Clarence received a trophy and a $100 U. S. savings bond. Neal attended the convention banquet Friday evening with his parents and Donald Miller, circulation manager of The Gettysburg Times.

His high rating in the state contest was attained on the basis of a 500-word essay on "Why I Like to be a Newspaperboy" and on his background and record as a carrier. Neal received a trophy at the awards banquet.

BANDS TO SELL PEANUTS HERE

The Junior and Senior bands of Gettysburg High School will be conducting their annual sale of Prom peanuts in Gettysburg this evening. The uniformed members of the bands will be assigned to teams which will work in assigned areas.

The annual sale which is sponsored by the Band Parents' Club for the benefit of the uniform and equipment fund results annually in approximately one ton of water blanched peanuts being sold. Recipe booklets in the bags give instructions for various ways to prepare and use the peanuts. On Tuesday, students who live in the rural areas of the school district will be given an opportunity to distribute peanuts in their neighborhoods.

Any persons missed in either of the campaigns or persons who desire additional peanuts may get them by contacting any student in the junior or senior high school up to Wednesday, October 11. If weather does not permit the sale tonight, the campaign will be conducted Tuesday evening.

OPPOSE SPLIT OF TOWNSHIP

Some dissatisfaction exists in Mt. Pleasant Twp. to plans of the county commissioners to divide the township into two, instead of three voting districts, the Adams County court was told this morning.

Fred G. Klunk, chairman of the Adams County Democratic committee, appeared as a witness at a hearing held on the proposed division of the township into two districts and the removal of Bonneauville, now created as a borough, from the township's voting plans.

Bonneauville had been a large part of Mt. Pleasant No. 3. With its removal, the township was divided by the commissioners into two parts and today the commissioners presented a petition asking the court to approve the proposed change.

Klunk, appearing to tell the court of sentiment in the area, said that the Mt. Pleasant residents have no intention of opposing the change for this election, realizing that the division had to be set up quickly in preparation for the November election. He said, however, that there is considerable opposition to the proposed division and that there probably will be a petition before the court following the November election asking further changes in the redistricting.

the Hotel Gettysburg at noon November 19. A parade will form at 2 o'clock on York St. and move at 2:30 p.m. to the National Cemetery. Rev. J. Harold Mowen will give the invocation and benediction at the service.

Plans were made for another meeting of the board Sunday, November 5, at the Hotel Gettysburg to complete arrangements. A length discussion was held on plans for observance of the 100th anniversary of Lincoln's dedication of the National Cemetery in 1963 and the fellowship made plans to coordinate its activities at that time with the Pennsylvania commission set up to mark the 100th anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg and the dedication of the National Cemetery.

Preliminary plans were discussed for fund raising to secure a statue of Lincoln to be dedicated as part of the 100th anniversary. Prof. Fred Klein, Lancaster, said the planned history of the Lincoln Fellowship is "about ready" for the printer. It is planned to use excerpts of addresses made on November since the founding of the fellowship in 1938 as part of the history.

Commissioner To Be PTA Speaker

County Commissioner Clarence J. Waybright will be the speaker for the York Springs Elementary School Parent-Teacher Association's October meeting on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the elementary school building at York Springs. His subject will be "Who Should Pay for Education in the Community?"

An open house will be held at the school from 7:30 to 8 o'clock when teachers will be in their room and Girl Scouts will be on duty to escort parents to the rooms in which their children are assigned. The room which has the largest number of parents in attendance will win a $3 cash award and will receive a banner.

A question period will follow Mr. Waybright's talk and refreshments and a social hour have been planned for after the meeting. All parents of elementary pupils at York Springs are urged to attend and to enroll in the PTA. There is a 50-cent fee with 35 cents of each membership retained by the local organization.

The president, Mrs. Frank Myers, will preside at the meeting.

Hit-Run Driver Sought By Police

State police today continued their search for an "old model black car with extensive damage to the left front" which struck the auto of H. William Tuckey, 59, Bendersville, a mile north of Biglerville on the Carlisle pike at 12:15 o'clock Sunday morning.

The auto struck the rear of the Tuckey car, causing $400 damage, and then continued on without stopping. At the time of the accident, Tuckey was headed north, the other car south.

AUTOIST INJURED

Wilbur Umbel, 48, Emmitsburg, is a patient in the Warner Hospital as the result of injuries received Sunday evening when he lost control of his car and his auto upset. X-rays were taken to determine if he suffered a fracture of the neck. He also received lacerations of the nose, left elbow and right index finger.

HARVEST HOME
NEXT SUNDAY
AT ST. JOHN'S

The annual Harvest Home service will be held next Sunday in St. John's Lutheran Church at 10:15 a.m. It is requested that donations for the harvest display be taken to the church on Saturday, so that the Golden Deeds can decorate the channel. The class will also pack the jarred products for sending to the National Lutheran Home in Washington, D. C. Dollar Day will be noted in the Sunday School next Sunday at 9 a.m. This special offering will be applied to the cost of redecorating the Junior Department and social room.

Home Coming will be observed at St. John's on Sunday, October 15 with a luncheon in the church social hall at 12 o'clock noon. The guest speaker for the luncheon will be the Rev. Kenneth D. James, Glen Rock, a former pastor. Former members of the congregation are invited to be guests for this occasion.

All ladies of St. John's are invited to attend a fellowship dinner in the church social hall on Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. The gathering is being sponsored by the Alta Hummer Organization of the United Lutheran Church Women. The Junior Choir will rehearse on Wednesday at 7 p.m. and Senior Choir rehearsal will follow at 8 p.m. The church council will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the church.

World-wide Communion services were held Sunday. The Rev. William C. Karns, pastor, read the Scripture from I Corinthians 11:23-29 and Matthew 5:21-26. The altar flowers were presented by Mr. and Mrs. Sterling J. Wisotzky, James W. Dutterer, Albert Starnier, Kenneth Bortner, Charles H. Boyd, W. E. Stites and Francis I. Gerrick served as ushers and communion assistants.

NEWS OF REDEEMER'S
Large congregations attended the Holy Communion services on Sunday morning in Redeemer's United Church of Christ. The pastor, Rev. Glenn Flinchbaugh, read the Scripture from Philippians 1:3-11 and St. Matthew 5:1-12, and presented a message on the subject "For Me To Live." The Senior Choir sang the anthem "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked," O'Hara, accompanied on the organ by Mrs. George A. Stonesifer, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur A. Bankert and family placed the altar flowers in memory of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bankert. The October bulletins are presented by Mr. and Mrs. Claude S. Reichart, Mrs. David F. Crouse, Hanover R. 5; Mrs. Robert G. Staub, Gettysburg R. 5, and Ronald Eugene Welty, Taneytown R. 2, were welcomed into membership.

The October session of the Redeemer's Consistory will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday in the church social hall. The choir will rehearse on Thursday, Cherubs at 6:15 p.m.; Juniors, 6:45 p.m., and Seniors, 8 p.m. Used clothing for the needy will be collected throughout the month of October.

TO HOLD BAZAAR
The Rev. Dr. John E. Metz, pastor of St. Aloysius Catholic Church, announced at the Sunday morning masses that the renovated classrooms have been occupied for the past week; that the recreation room will be completed, together with the adjoining kitchenette, within the next weeks and then work will be started on the parish hall kitchen, thus making it possible to make preliminary plans for the annual three-day Thanksgiving bazaar. A special offering was received for school and debt purposes.

Daily mass this week in St. Aloysius Church will begin at 7:15 a.m., and will be held in the convent chapel except Friday, the first Friday of the month, when communion will be distributed at 5:45 and 7 a.m., and Mass will be held at 8:15 a.m., and will be held in the parish hall. Confessions will be heard on Thursday at 4 and 7 p.m.

Next Sunday the annual Donation Day for the Sisters of Mercy of the parish will be observed. Parishioners may take their contributions along to the Masses and leave them at the convent following each Mass. Next Sunday, also the annual offering for the Special Diocesan Activities Fund of St. Aloysius Parish Council of Catholic Women, will be received.

"WELL ENOUGH"

As we strive to reach perfection . . . in our quest for sweet success . . . sometimes we are prone to end up . . . in a most perplexing mess . . . for its seems we have the urge to . . . push on to a higher hill . . . man is like an animal who eats beyond its fill . . . the outcome of this practice . . . is often not so good . . . instead of gaining we go back . . . to where we had first stood . . . yet people seldom ever learn . . . until it is too late . . . life is often just a case . . . of hurry up and wait . . . the only way to keep success . . . is tread a temperate zone . . . it's all in knowing when to leave . . . well enough alone.

But it said that in the last few days it had given the U.S. and other delegates "a conciliatory proposal on the temporary administration of the secretariat."

This, it said, is that the assembly on recommendation of the Security Council "will invite a man who is well known in United Nations circles to serve as chief" of the secretariat until April 1963. The Soviet proposal also calls for naming three deputies "who now work in the administrative body of the secretariat and who are highly qualified international officials from the U.S.S.R., the United States and one of the countries of Asia or Africa."

Fire Causes $100,000
Loss To Machinery

BUTLER, Pa. (AP)—Fire of undetermined origin caused an estimated $100,000 damage to a farm equipment firm at nearby Prospect Sunday.

The blaze, fought by six volunteer fire companies, wrecked Mowery's Farm Equipment, a one-story frame and concrete block building.

Prospect fire chief Robert McKinnis, who estimated damage, said half of the loss resulted from destruction of tractor parts and other equipment.

Seven Killed In Traffic Mishaps

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Traffic accidents killed seven persons in Pennsylvania over the weekend, a boy was shot to death, a young man drowned and another man was killed by a train as the accidental death toll reached 10 from 6 p.m. Friday until midnight Sunday night.

No multiple traffic fatalities were reported.

Wayne Barto, of Palmyra, who was 18 on Sunday, was the shooting victim. Authorities said he was shot by a bullet fired from a .22-caliber rifle held by Terry Meyers, 17, also of Palmyra. Officials said the two youths had been playing a game in which they would hide behind trees and shoot at each other.

of Phillipsburg, Saturday in the association's offices.

An employee, Alexander J. Reeder, of Avis, said Ball pulled out a .22 caliber revolver and demanded some cash after he came into the bank to arrange a loan. When Ball wasn't looking, Reeder ran into the street and hailed the state policeman who was passing by in a patrol car.

HARRIERS BOW AT JUNIATA

A fifth, sixth and seventh place finish was enough to give the Juniata cross country team a one-sided 21-40 decision over the Gettysburg harriers Saturday afternoon on the winner's course. The meet marked the first for both teams. Juniata has now won 27 consecutive meets without a setback.

Ed Samuels, the Indian speedster, was the first to cross the finish line. He covered the four-mile layout in 24:15.0. Team-mate Rick Berthold came home second just 19 seconds after Samuels. Ed Salmon and Jim Lombardi set the pace for Gettysburg, but could not get any support from the rest of the squad. Both Berthold runners crossed the finish line in the same time, 25:20.

Bill Bulkley, Bob Chew and John Reeves gave Juniata the win ending fifth, sixth and seventh, respectively. Gettysburg's points came on Jim Schmucker's 10th place, John Wilkerson's 11th and Martin Young's 12th place finishes.

his wife, he left the house. Then he came back, shoved the rifle in the door and sat on the front porch. He then moved inside and was sitting in the living room when police arrived. In the meantime a neighbor had grabbed the rifle and took it next door.

Police said that Fair offered no resistance when they arrested him. They said they found 12 shells in his pocket and there were six in the rifle, one of which had been fired.

At the time of the shooting the couple's 15-year-old daughter was in the back yard of the Mummert home.

ONE SHOT FATAL

Dr. Donald E. Withers, Hanover, deputy coroner, ordered an autopsy. Late Saturday night the coroner's office said the autopsy revealed that Mrs. Fair apparently had her left arm raised at the time of the shooting. The bullet shattered the left forearm, went through the left lung, heart and right lung and lodged in the chest cavity. The time of death was fixed at about 4 p.m.

Mrs. Fair had been employed for about 12 years by Doubleday and Co., Inc. Her husband was employed as a labeler by the Hanover Canning Co. for the same period of time. Barbara is the couple's only child.

SERVICES TODAY

A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Krug, Hanover R. 5, Mrs. Fair was a member of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

Mass Union Meeting: Tomorrow will be held a Union Mass meeting in Gettysburg, at which there will, we have not a doubt, be a large attendance. There will be some good speaking; and from the feeling about, a lively impulse will be given to the good old cause of the Union, and an increased attachment to the Stars and Stripes.

Capture Of James B. Clay

Yesterday afternoon, Lieut. Col. Leteher, with a detachment of Col. Woodward's regiment, captured James B. Clay, with 16 of his men, while they were on their way to join Zollicoffer. They were taken to camp Dick Robinson. John C. Breckinridge was with the party, but managed to make his escape.

The Louisville Journal says: It is now rendered quite certain that John C. Breckinridge, Col. Wm. Preston, Beck, the law partner of Breckinridge, and all the prominent rebels of Lexington have left their homes and found an asylum in a military camp in Morgan county.

The money market at New York on Saturday showed greater ease. Money is largely in excess of the demand, the call rates being from five to six per cent, mostly the lower rate. Foreign exchange declined one per cent, as compared with a week ago. A meeting of the associated banks was held on Saturday, at which it was unanimously agreed to take the second $50,000,000 of the national loan, and the probability is that on Monday they would determine to take the third installment of $50,000,000, which would suffice for the war expenditure until February.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Accident: On Tuesday Mr. Lewis Kumerant, of this place, met with a serious accident on the Chambersburg pike, a mile or two from town. He was returning home with his cracker wagon, when for some unexplained cause the horse began kicking, upset and wrecked the wagon and ran off. Mr. Kumerant has no recollection of how the accident occurred. The only thing he can recall is the kicking of the horse. He was found lying under the wreck of the wagon unconscious, badly cut and bruised about the parts of the body. He was brought to town and Dr. Robert Horner called in. No bones were broken, but there was concussion of the brain, with a general shaking up and bruising. He has since been confined to bed, but is improving.

Medical Society: At the last meeting of the Adams County Medical Society the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Charles Horner; vice presidents, I. W. Pearson and R. E. Elderidge; Cor. Sec., A. Noel; Rec. Sec., J. C. Felty; Treasurer, E. W. Mumma; Dr. W. C. Sandrock of New Oxford, was elected a member. Dr. J. W. C. O'Neal made some remarks on the Insane Hospitals of England Scotland, Dr. Charles Horner was appointed to prepare a paper on "Placenta Praevia," to be read before the society on the second Tuesday of November.

Water Stock: On Saturday the Gettysburg Water Company sold 149 shares of new stock, at public sale; par value $15. The premiums ranged from $3.50 to $8.75, aggregating $1,075. The sales were as follows: Prof. P. M. Bickle 10

Today's Talk

THE CONTROLLED TONGUE

Carlyle was a great preacher of silence. "Hold your tongue for one day," he once wrote, "on the morrow how much clearer are your purposes and duties."

How powerful is the sea in its silences. You gaze upon it and for hours you may meditate and never grow weary from its inspiration. Its voice is so grandly silent.

Great men are seldom talkative. They think.

I like to think of the story of Tennyson and Carlyle; how they used to visit each other and then after an entire evening of sitting and saying nothing in words, would part. How much each must have learned from the other!

The man who does things and says little is always a mystery. You never know just what he will do next. As for the one who talks and talks, you don't care what he does. He can go hang for all you may care.

That which makes the night so splendid is its silence. Maybe that is why so many great writers do their best literary work after the sun has gone to sleep.

To hold your tongue is to let people look into the open doors of your heart.

Just the minute you let your tongue loose, you advertise every weakness you possess.

It takes courage to hold your tongue when someone else cracks the very air with his, but it is the better part of wisdom and valor just the same to keep your tongue in check.

The controlled tongue has taken more cities than ever armies have.

Just Folks

ONE GOLFER I BAR

I'll go with the golfer who grunts when he swings,
I'll stand for the golfer who whistles and sings;
I'll play in a foursome with any old dub,
Including the fellow who swears at his club;
But I'm through with that golfer, whatever his name,
Who snarls that his caddie is spoiling his game.

I'll listen to alibis, day after day,
Though seldom a new one is sprung when I play;
I'll even put up with the added-brained mutt
Who laughs with delight when I miss a short putt;

But I'm through with that golfer, I tell you, for good,
Who won't treat his caddie the way that he should.

I'll play with the sober, I'll play with the crank,
I'll even play with the head of a bank;
I'll play with a talkative chap, if I must,
I'll even play with a man I don't trust;

But my afternoon's pleasure no man shall destroy
By constantly venting his rage on a boy.

LAFAYETTE, HARVARD WIN ALL BUT GAME

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Football still is a game of points not statistics. If you aren't convinced, take a look at the Harvard-Lehigh and Lafayette-Penn games this past weekend. Harvard and Lafayette did everything but outscore their opponents.

Lehigh scored a pair of touchdowns in the fourth quarter for a 22-7 victory over Harvard. Center Charley Craze tallied the clincher when he recovered a loose ball in the Harvard end zone with 2½ minutes left. Penn edged Lafayette 14-7, but had to turn back three Lafayette scoring bids inside the 10-yard line in the final period. The Leopards almost overcame a 14-0 deficit for the second straight week.

PHILS, BUCS CONCLUDE '61 SLUMP SEASON

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Pittsburgh Pirates and the Philadelphia Phillies didn't have much to cheer about when the 1961 regular baseball season ended Sunday.

Both clubs slumped badly and home attendance was way off.

One bright note, however, was outfielder Roberto Clemente of the Pirates winning the 1961 National League batting championship with a .351 mark after being sidelined by an arm injury for the last five games.

Clemente succeeded teammate Dick Groat who won the title in 1960 with a .325 average but slumped below .300 this year.

The Pirates, the world champions in 1960, closed out their season at Forbes Field with a 3-1 victory over pennant-winning Cincinnati at Joe Gibbs' seventh birthday. But the Pirates still finished in sixth place, 18 games behind the top and 5 games behind fifth-place St. Louis.

BUCS SKID DOLLY

The Pirates this year showed a 75-79 mark for a .487 percentage compared to a 95-59 mark and a .618 percentage when they won the NL pennant in 1960.

Philadelphia ended its poorest season in 16 years Sunday with a 2-0 loss to St. Louis as Bob Gibson pitched a six-hitter and Curt Flood backed him with a homer.

It marked the fourth straight year the Phillies finished in last place. They dropped 107 games while winning only 47 for a .305 percentage. It was the poorest team showing since 1945, when the Phillies lost 108 games, and the worst National League record since Pittsburgh lost 112 games in 1952.

POOR ATTENDANCE

Attendance wise, Pittsburgh showed a drop of 506,700 fans at Forbes Field in comparison to last year while the Phillies slumped by 272,166 at Connie Mack Stadium.

Pittsburgh drew a total of 1,199,128 fans this year compared to 1,705,828 in 1960.

Philadelphia's final home attendance was 590,039 compared to 862,205 a year ago. It was the first time since 1945 that the Phillies had attracted less than 736,000 fans. The attendance in 1945 was only 310,385.

sylvia football scene this past weekend. Albright extended the state's longest current winning streak to 14 games; West Chester turned back East Stroudsburg, a strong contender for the State College Conference crown; unbeaten Villanova beat Holy Cross for its third straight victory; Penn State lost to Miami, and Susquehanna kept its winning way, defeating Ursinus.

Tom Olivo, a senior halfback, scored four touchdowns for Albright in a surprisingly easy 52-20 victory over Muhlenberg. Quarterback Vince Bonkoski completed 11 of 16 passes for 171 yards and two touchdowns in West Chester's 28-7 triumph over East Stroudsburg. Villanova gave up its first and only touchdown in three games but came back to beat Holy Cross 20-6. The Wildcats made two great goal line stands.

GAVE UP TD

Penn State was unable to cope with quarterback George Mira, 6 completions for 10 passes, 101 yards and a touchdown, and end Bill Miller, seven catches for 114 yards. It all added up to a 25-8 Miami victory and deflation of the State ranking. Susquehanna gave up its first TD in four games—two at the end of last season—but easily disposed of Ursinus 28-6.

Other highlights included Bucknell's fourth period come from behind win over Temple, 8-7; Mansfield's 26-21 victory over Shippensburg, helped by quarterback Bill Roesch's two TD passes and solo score; Clarion's 20-0 whitewash of Grove City, and Westminster's opening game triumph over Indiana, 19-7.

Twins, Mentor Given One-year Contract

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP)—Minnesota manager Sam Mele, given a new one-year contract to manage the Twins, said he has some definite ideas which should help to strengthen the team next year.

While Mele was being named manager Sunday, the Twins were dropping an 8-3 decision to Detroit. They finished in seventh place.

"The team this year was definitely weak on some of the fundamentals of the game," Mele said.

Mele cited poor bunting, bad throws from the outfield, indecision of the shortstop and second baseman as to who will cover second on steals and double plays, and general lack of infield knowledge as to where to play as definite drawbacks the team had in 1961.

A Lovelier You

BEAUTY BLEMISH. A lovely writes: I am plagued by dandruff to the point of embarrassment. What is the best way to overcome it?

The Answer: Most of the human race suffers dandruff at some time. For effective relief, it is necessary to understand the nature of the ailment. Dandruff is an ailment, you know, and not just a beauty blemish.

The symptoms are an over-activity of the scalp's oil glands and the presence of undue flake. In this element bacteria, always found on the skin, readily multiply and set up seborrheic dermatitis—dandruff.

Important factors may be a diet too rich in fats and sugar, nervous tension and fatigue, and excessive perspiration. Doctors also relate dandruff, in some instances, to systemic disorders.

Treatment, obviously, should be tailored to the individual—by a physician in severe cases. But in every case, the means to a cure include a sensible diet and scrupulous cleanliness.

The hair should be washed no less than twice weekly. There is value in washing with treatment or seborrheic shampoos. In such a shampoo, you get the benefit of healing allantoin; the anti-inflammatory action of a special coal-tar extract; the antiseptic action of hexachlorophene, and conditioning agents that promote sheen and manageability.

A gentle brushing each day is another aid to cleanliness. Of course brushes, and also combs, must be kept immaculate—sudsed daily and rinsed under hot water after each use.

MANY EXPECT STEEL PRICES WON'T GO UP

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Most of the men who buy steel are betting the steel mills won't raise prices this fall—much as they would like to because of the higher wage scales in effect today.

A little more than half would consider substitutes if steel prices did go up, and a third would dicker with foreign sources.

At least this is how 624 purchasing officers for steel-using corporations size up the situation. FEEL NOT JUSTIFIED

Four out of five of these customers, understandably enough, agree with President Kennedy that a steel price isn't justified at this time. But two out of three side with the steel executives opposed to any intervention by government in deciding whether the wage hike merits a price rise.

The sampling of steel customers was made by Purchasing Magazine, a trade publication.

Questioning of steel-users by others shows many may hike their own prices even if steel itself doesn't go up. And still more would pass along any steel price increases to their own customers and add in some other higher costs that trouble them.

COMPLAIN OF SQUEEZE

For one thing, many will be paying the higher wages right along with the mills, since about half of the United Steelworkers members work for the mills' customers—the makers of boilers, tin cans, nuts and bolts, metal stampings, and many other steel products. The union also has contracts with the producers of a steel competitor, aluminum.

Price hikes are being considered by makers of such end products as box springs for bedding, stoves, dishwashers, farm implements, trucks, construction equipment, chain belts, lathes and grinders. In all cases the reason given: Rising labor and other production costs are squeezing profit margins more than they can stand.

GIVE THEIR VIEWS

Rising prices this fall in basic steel are feared by only 16 per cent of the 624 purchasing agents for the steel-users. And only 20 per cent think a steel price increase would be justified. But 66 per cent were against congressional action to prevent a steel price rise. Only 16 per cent think Congress should pass judgment on what is a satisfactory rate of profit for the steel industry.

While 73 per cent of the buyers of steel would like to see more competition in that industry, 67 per cent doubted that steel-users would benefit if the steel industry were broken up into a large number of small rival companies. And a whopping 81 per cent said subjecting the industry to government price regulation wouldn't help users at all.

Two of the things that steel executives have been mulling over have been: Competition among the mills themselves, since many have idle facilities they would like to put to work if they could find customers, even at present prices; and competition from substitutes which would only be increased if steel prices were raised.

FOREIGN COMPETITION

These substitutes include aluminum, other metals and plastics for some products, and concrete or other building materials in the construction industry. Also troublesome is the ever present threat of foreign competition as the steel industries of Western Europe and Japan grow.

So the magazine asked the 624

Reds Force Girls To Clear Border Into "Death Strip"

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

BERLIN (AP)—East Germany put girls and women to work today at turning sections of Berlin's East-West border into a no man's land. West Berliners call it "the death strip."

The women joined thousands of laborers clearing ground and razing houses under the supervision of armed guards along the 25-mile sector border. The appearance of women suggested a manpower shortage in East Berlin.

Female workers were sighted along the Teltow Canal opposite the American zone. A number of fugitives have escaped to freedom

Big 10 Wants Rose Bowl Grid Contract

CHICAGO (AP)—The Big Ten wants another Rose Bowl football contract and voted Sunday in favor of negotiating with the Athletic Association of Western Universities.

Minnesota, defeated 17-7 by Washington last New Year's Day, cast the deciding ballot for a 6-4 majority in favor of a tie-up with the Big Five of the West Coast.

The measure will now be reviewed by each individual school and a final vote, considered to be a formality, will be taken at the Big Ten winter meetings in Chicago Dec. 7-9.

The Big Ten and the defunct Pacific Coast Conference had an agreement which lasted 14 years. That arrangement expired with the 1960 game after the Big Ten voted 5-5 in the spring of 1960 on the question of resuming the contract.

The deadlock vote killed the issue but a loophole remained which permitted a Big Ten team to go to Pasadena on an individual basis if such a team were invited. Minnesota accepted such an invitation although it had voted against the Rose Bowl.

Team Punts Five Times On One Play

PALMERTON, Pa. (AP)

Stroud Union High School of Stroudsburg set what may be a high school punting record Saturday when they were forced to punt five times on one play in the third quarter. Penalties which nullified four kicks in a row necessitated the punts. At the same time Stroud broke a 14-game losing streak with a 13-0 victory over Palmerton.

purchasing agents what they would do if steel prices were raised, and 55 per cent said they would consider switching to competitive materials. The replies didn't indicate whether the other 45 per cent were in a position to use substitutes economically.

But 63 per cent said buying from foreign sources didn't figure in their plans whatever course domestic prices take.

The scene at the gambling casinos was more sober. Players immediately started leaving when told of Castro's order.

In the days of the Fulgencio Batista dictatorship, Havana had about 25 gambling casinos. They were a prime attraction for both tourists and American underworld figures who operated them—with a cut of the profits going to government officials.

Despite the warm, sunny afternoon it was just another blue day for head football Coach Gene Haas as his Gettysburg College squad dropped its third straight contest, a 13-0 decision to Juniata, Saturday afternoon in Huntingdon before 2,500 fans. The engagements marked the first outing of the season for Coach Ken Bunn's Indians.

Statistically the Bullets did a little better than the past two games, but it is still far off the pace Gettysburg is capable of doing. The Bullets picked up 10 first downs and added 67 yards on the ground and 87 in the air for a total offense of 154 yards. Because of the many Gettysburg injuries, Haas was forced to use many Sophomores and this may just have been the situation the coaching staff was looking for.

PERFORM WELL
Barry Gruber, Harrisburg, 5-8, 170, turned in a fine performance at halfback. Gruber picked up 37 yards on six carries, caught one pass for two yards and intercepted an Indian aerial. Vance Johnston, Biglerville, took over the quarterback assignment late in the game and completed two of five passes for 23 yards, but had one intercepted. Bob Furney, Barry Shaw and Dave Wehr put in a good day's work in the forward wall.

Little had another good day in pass percentage department, but his receivers were unable to pick up more than 64 yards. Little completed 10 of 19 tosses.

Despite the fine showing of the Sophomores and the improved performance of several vets, the ball game ran in the same fashion as the first two. Juniata had very little action on its side of the 50, and consequently the Bullet defense had to carry the load. Juniata took a 7-0 lead with 2:28 minutes left in the first period. George Patrick returned Don Carpenter's punt 14 yards to the Indians' 46. Juniata Quarterback Ron Poruban faded back and cut loose with a long 48-yard pass to End Al Tavalsky who was dropped immediately by Vance Johnston on the Bullets' four. Four plays later Halfback Phil Rohm streaked into the end zone from one yard out. Tavalsky's placement was perfect.

The scored remained 7-0 until the clock showed 3:50 remaining in the third period. George Patrick pulled down his first of three intercepted passes and was dropped on the Gettysburg 46. After Grey Berrier and Rohm toted six yards to the 40, Poruban whipped a pass to Tavalsky for 12 yards. Three plays later Juniata was on the Gettysburg 20, but Rohm was tossed for a yard loss and the Indians were penalized five yards for illegal substitution. On the next play Halfback Barry Moore went wide to his right and fired a pass to Barry Broadwater for 26 yards and the TD. This time Moore's run for the point was stopped.

BULLET DRIVES STOPPED
Twice during the first half Gettysburg advanced into Indian territory.

MSM RUNNERS TOP ROANOKE

Snaring the first three places, the Mt. St. Mary's College cross-country team opened its season by defeating Roanoke 20-38 Saturday at Emmitsburg.

Frank Murphy finished first in streaking over the 3.2 mile course in 16:39.2. He was followed by teammates John McKee and Bill Marzloff.

The Mountaineers will meet Galaudet at Washington, D. C., next Saturday.

DUTCHMAN GRID PLAYER DIES FROM INJURY

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A 20-year-old Lebanon Valley College football player, taken to a hospital after complaining of a headache during a game Saturday, died today following emergency surgery for removal of a blood clot from his brain.

John Zola, a junior halfback from Hazleton, Pa., died at 3:53 a.m., hospital attendants said. He had undergone surgery shortly before midnight Saturday night but had remained in critical condition.

According to a spokesman for Drexel Institute of Technology, Lebanon Valley's opponent Saturday, Coach Bill McHenry noticed Zola kneeling on one knee near the end of the third quarter.

SAID HE WAS OK

McHenry, the spokesman said, sent in a substitute for Zola and asked him if he was okay. Zola said he was and wanted to go back in the game. But after about four minutes he complained of a headache. He was taken to Presbyterian Hospital where tests determined that he had a blood clot. The clot was successfully removed, the hospital said.

But a spokesman declined to list the specific cause of death. He said that further tests are being made to determine this.

Zola's mother and father and other relatives kept a vigil at his bedside. They were too broken to talk to reporters immediately about the death. McHenry also was at Zola's bedside when he died.

Zola had received the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church.

Maris' 61st Home Run May Net Him Some $300,000 In Royalties In Three Years

By JIM HACKLEMAN

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—A baseball was hit into the right field seats at New York's Yankee Stadium Sunday, bringing a larger measure of renown to one young man, a unique but unwanted distinction to another, and instantaneous fame to still another.

The first was Roger Maris of the New York Yankees, who hit the ball—his 61st homer this year for an all-time, one-season high. The second was rookie pitcher Tracy Stallard of the Boston Red Sox, who threw it. And the third was the fortunate fan who caught it, Sal Durante, 19, of Coney Island, Brooklyn.

Maris connected for No. 61 in the fourth inning on his second time at bat and in the final game of the regular season, bringing the American League champions a 1-0 victory. Stallard's first two deliveries were balls, high and outside, then low and inside. His next pitch was fast, a little high, and over the plate. Maris uncoiled with that mighty, fluid left-handed swing of his and rifled the ball into the lower right-field stands, a drive of about 360 feet.

SHARES THRONE

There, fighting hard among the pack of spectators for the valuable memento, young Durante made his catch.

Despite his unprecedented total of 61, Maris, 27, does not reign as undisputed home-run king but shares the throne with the fabled Babe Ruth. Under a ruling by baseball Commissioner Ford Frick, Ruth holds the 154-game season record with his 60 in 1927. Maris' 61 will be recognized as a record for the 162-game season inaugurated by the American League this year when it expanded from 8 to 10 teams.

Stallard, 24, is a right-hander in his first full major league season. He did not seem overly perturbed at being the pitcher who yielded No. 61.

SURROUNDED BY POLICE

Durante was anything but blasé in his moment of glory. The truck driver-mechanic, a one-time sandlot second baseman, was quickly surrounded by policemen after making his catch and, with a firm clutch on the precious ball, was escorted under the stands to meet Maris.

For Maris, the results of home run 61 will amount to much more than records and adulation. It is estimated he will earn $300,000 in endorsements, personal appearances, and royalties in the next three years.

Maris, the physical and mental strain finally lifted, met the press for the last time in this pressure-packed season, jubilant over "the biggest home run I ever hit."

"It was great, great, great—the greatest thrill I ever had," he said.

ROOF FALLS IN ON 4 OF TOP TEN COLLEGES

By JACK CLARY

Associated Press Sports Writer
It will be another month yet before Iowa and Mississippi realize their moment of truth in college football, unless—

Unless the roof falls in on them as it did to Ohio State, Rice, Penn State and UCLA, to name four, last weekend.

The two powerhouses, ranked 1-2 nationally in The Associated Press' poll, may make it unseated until Nov. 4, when both face their toughest opponents of the year, Ohio State and Louisiana State, respectively.

The Hawkeyes, who made Coach Jerry Burns debut a successful Saturday by beating California 28-7, play Southern California this weekend.

WORKED HARD

Mississippi, with two straight victories, and 17 games in an unbeaten string, takes on Florida State. Ole Miss had to work for a 20-7 victory over Kentucky Saturday night.

Ohio State, though, had its thoughts of a perfect season jolted by upset-maker Texas Christian, which held the favored Buckeyes to a 7-7 tie. Last week, TCU upset Kansas 17-16, and now challenges Texas for Southwest Conference supremacy. Those two don't meet till late in November.

Rice, another of the so-called SWC elite, ran right into Georgia Tech's up-and-coming buzzsaw that mowed 'em down 24-0 while UCLA, the pride of the West Coast's Big Five, got ambushed by Michigan 28-6.

Coupled with Penn State's Friday night loss, the nation's top ten teams are in a rather bedraggled condition.

Some of the big boys made out better. Alabama, which now contends with Ole Miss and Georgia Tech for Southeastern Conference honors, beat Tulane 9-0 and plays Vanderbilt this week. Fifth-ranked Syracuse scored 29-14 over West Virginia, which hasn't won a game in 18 starts, and will have a little more competition this week from Maryland.

Texas continued going strong, wallowing Texas Tech 42-14 and meets Washington State on Saturday. Michigan State (No. 10), atop the Big Ten after beating Wisconsin 20-0, will find out if Stanford is for real. The Indians, after an all-season season in 1960, won their second Saturday, upending Oregon State 34-0.

NOTRE DAME WINS

Notre Dame convinced everyone it wasn't kidding with its 19-6 beating of Oklahoma and Navy may not be as dead as many think after beating William & Mary 44-6.

AP Reporter Tells What Diplomatic Luncheon In A Cold War Looks Like

By SAUL PETT
NEW YORK (AP)—What is a diplomatic luncheon like in the cold war?

It is four hours long. It is half small talk, half big talk and half of the second half is taken up with translation.

The food is good, the wine chilled to perfection and everyone is well-mannered and polite. The tone of their conversation never reflects the fact that both countries involved have rockets with nuclear warheads aimed at each other.

Nobody at a cold-war diplomatic luncheon loses his temper. Nobody raises his voice. Nobody even implies the other man may be a liar although nobody assumes he isn't.

It was that way Wednesday when Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet foreign minister, played host to Dean Rusk, U.S. secretary of state, in their continuing talks on the Berlin crisis. Each man had six aides and an interpreter with him.

IN SOVIET HOME
The scene was the brick home of the Soviet delegation to the United Nations, on Park Avenue and 68th street, a neighborhood best known for capitalists and psychoanalysts.

Promptly at one, Rusk and the other Americans began to arrive, also in black Cadillacs. Adlai E. Stevenson had some trouble getting in since the Soviet attendants had just slammed the door on photographers and were not immediately convinced this was the U.S. ambassador to the U.N.

Inside, the Americans were led up a broad circular staircase to a reception room.

ONE DRINK

There was time for one drink, the favorites being orange juice, vodka and cordials, separately. Clowning for cameramen, Gromyko held up three fingers toward Stevenson, symbolizing the Soviets' troika plan for the U.N.

"Three of a kind are only good in a poker game," said Stevenson. "Then how about three vodkas?" said Gromyko.

"I'll take one," said Stevenson. In diplomatic luncheon circles, this is considered boffo humor.

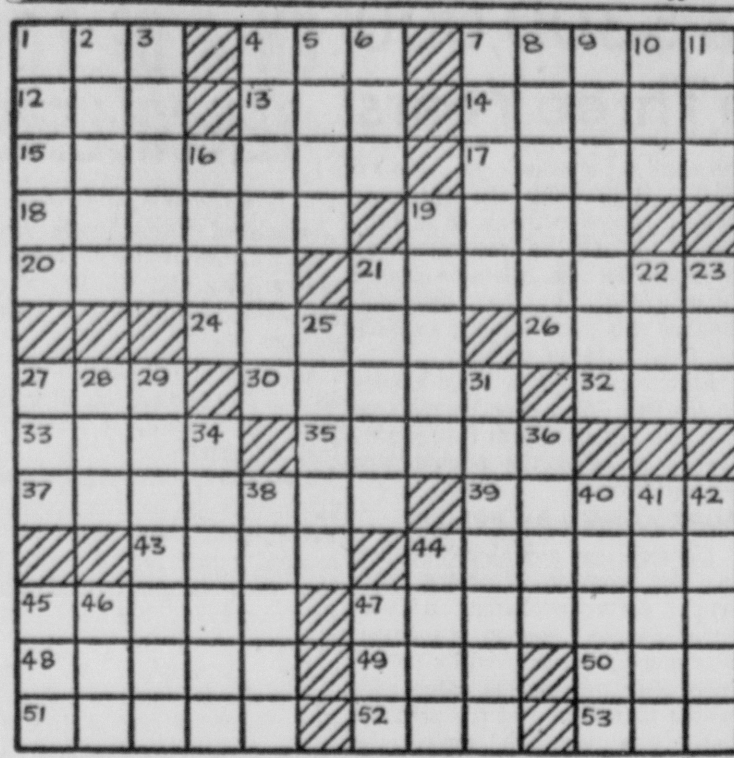

Gromyko led his guests into a high-ceilinged dining room, where the silverware and china sparkled but the landscape oil paintings on the walls had an inspirational quality usually seen only in chain hotels.

PLACES FOR 14

The participants were seated around a round table, places for 14, each including four glasses for water, vodka, white wine, red wine and cognac. For openers the diplomats ate smoked salmon, black caviar, tomatoes and cucumbers.

The fish course was "yellow pike, Polish style." The meat was chopped steak, tasty but decidedly more proletarian than the Cornish hen served last week to the Soviets by Rusk. Dessert was strawberries and cream, then coffee and liqueurs.

For more than an hour, the diplomats ate, sipped and made small talk about their home towns, their common experiences in Europe, the weather, noncontroversial aspects of the U.N. and professional baseball.

But once the chit-chat ended and they got down to serious business—Berlin—each side reverted to its own language and used interpreters so that their meanings could be precisely understood.

The business end of the meeting began after liqueurs when Gromyko rose and led his guests back to the reception room.

Rusk and Gromyko did most of the talking. They addressed each other as "Mr. Minister" and "Mr. Secretary." Nobody here used first names.

They talked almost two hours, half of this taken up by translation. They talked seriously and took no side tracks into idle diversion or humor. It was completely businesslike, according to an American, but not completely grim or without an occasional smile.

At the close, they shook hands perfunctorily. Gromyko saw Rusk to his car. As newsmen closed in on the sidewalk, Gromyko spread his arms and said, "What you want, boys?" as though he were helpless putty in their hands. He wasn't.

CHARISSE IN ROME

ROME (AP) — American film actress Cyd Charisse arrived in Rome Friday night to play in a picture about an American film actress arriving in Rome, "Two Weeks in Another Country."

YOUTH KILLED IN GUN GAME

LEBANON, Pa. (AP) — Wayne Barto, of nearby Palmyra, was shot to death on his 18th birthday Sunday during a game in which he and another boy hid behind trees and shot at each other, authorities reported.

Dist. Atty. James R. Whitman of Lebanon County said Barto was killed instantly by a bullet fired from a .22-caliber rifle by Terry Meyers, 17, also of Palmyra.

Whitman said, however, Meyers had "no intent to kill, no malice." The district attorney said Barto, Meyers and three other boys—Robert L. Bates, 16, of Annville R. 1; John Nauman, 14, of Palmyra Route 1, and Meyers' brother, Dennis, 15—had been shooting at targets on a farm two miles north of Palmyra.

PLAYED A GAME

According to Whitman, Barto and Terry Meyers later decided to "play a game where they would hide behind trees and shoot at each other, apparently thinking the trees would shield them."

Barto stuck his head out from behind a tree at a time when Terry Meyers fired, said Whitman. He was struck in the left eye.

Whitman said authorities plan to place a charge of involuntary manslaughter against Terry Meyers.

The first power-operated laundry was started in 1851 in Oakland, Calif., by a man named Davis. He used a 10-horsepower donkey engine.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H®. At all drug counters.

3 HS STUDENTS HONORED FOR NATIONAL TEST

Certificates for outstanding work on the National Educational Development tests were awarded to three Bermudian students at a school assembly recently at Bermudian Springs High School.

Certificates of Educational Development were presented to Juniors Barbara Bolger, Carol Shook and Gary Shank by Guidance Counselor John Rebert. Granting the awards was Science Research Associates, a Chicago-based firm serving education, industry and government through applied behavioral sciences.

In March the development tests were given to more than 366,000 students across the nation in ninth and tenth grades.

Certificates were awarded to students who scored in the top quarter of each state participants. In order to qualify for an award in Pennsylvania, a student in tenth grade had to score in the 93rd percentile or higher.

MAGAZINE SALES

First day sales in the current magazine campaign totaled $744.30 following the kick-off assembly.

Sophomore Donovan Myers was first-day high salesman with a total of $51 to boost his home-

$127.54. The homeroom teacher, Mrs. Roxine Thompson, was awarded a planter, and the students were presented the campaign mascot, "Perky Pup."

Three hundred and fifty students reported first-day sales and each was awarded a candy bar. The campaign has a $3,000 goal and will close next week.

Students running the campaign are Judy Gross, business manager; Susan Bricker, assistant manager; Helen Hankey, Alma Anderson, Cynthia Zepp and Sandy Wenschhoff, leaders; and the following homeroom captains: Seniors Barry Hinkle and Tom Wolf; Juniors Wanda Borror and Louy Kuntz; Sophomores Susan Grim and James Eshleman; Freshmen Natalie Smith, Conrad Weiser and Robert Riley; Eighth Graders Joanne Miller, Roger Smith, Joe Lemmon and Tom Harboid; and Seventh Graders Carol Gross, Penny Baum, Mary Eshleman and Matt Townsend.

PLAN COLLEGE NIGHT

One-fourth of the students in the upper three grades have signed to attend College Night to be held at Gettysburg on October 25. Students and their parents will meet with representatives from two colleges of the students' choice in 40-minute conferences.

College night is part of the high school's guidance program. Representatives from universities, teacher and junior colleges, military academies, and schools of nursing and business will attend. Enrollment totaled 534 students on September 21. The breakdown

NEW FEATURES BIND CHURCHES

DETROIT (AP) — Some new ecumenical features—the ties that bind Christians together—now mark the Protestant Episcopal Church.

They were fashioned at the denomination's triennial general convention, which closed Friday with a stirring appeal from its by grades showed 74 in the Twelfth; 49, Eleventh; 76, Tenth; 113, Ninth; 101 Eighth; and 121, Seventh.

CHORUS ELECTIONS

The Senior Chorus elected officers on September 11, the first in the unit's history. These officers, selected from among 73 members, the unit's largest membership, make up the chorus council which will be in charge of the award system.

Elected were Senior Mark Weiser, president; Senior Bonna Byers, vice president; Junior Joy Neidig, secretary; and the following grade representatives: Jeff Eisenhart and Barbara Hess, grade twelve; Gary Shank and Bonnie Bowers, grade eleven; and Steve Black and Susie Grim, grade ten. George Boyer Jr. is director of the chorus. Students will be awarded letters their senior year after three year's membership. The chorus is presently preparing for a Christmas concert to be given December 8.

bishops for the reunion of world Christianity.

They said the challenge was one that "in faithfulness to God we cannot evade."

In a 4,000-word pastoral letter, the bishops urged Christians "to work and pray without ceasing until by God's grace and in his time the divisions by which we dishonor our one Lord are done away."

CONVENTION THEME

The message, in a sense, bespoke the theme of the two-week governing convention, which crossed some new milestones in bridging the chasms between churches.

It approved merger conversations with four other denominations, the United Presbyterians; Methodists; the United Church of Christ, including Congregationalists, and the Evangelical and Reformed Church; and the Polish National Catholic Church.

The letter of the 190-member House of Bishops, a teaching guide to the church's 3½-million members, is to be read in all of the approximately 7,000 Episcopal congregations in coming weeks.

Why you should open a window before you close the door of a Volkswagen.

Don't laugh. Every now and then a new VW owner brings his car in to ask why the doors seem hard to close.

The reason is that the VW is practically airtight. With the windows up, the door meets a solid wall of trapped air. So it takes a little extra push to close it. Unless you open a window just a crack to let the air escape.

It happens because every last VW part fits just so. (When you've been making the same basic car as long as the VW people have, all the wrinkles get ironed out. For good.)

And still, there are 3,500 men who do nothing else but inspect every operation all down the Volkswagen line.

When you come in to drive a new VW, you might make this test: It's the very same one that the Volkswagen inspector makes during the final inspection of every finished VW.)

Crank up all the windows and try to close a door. Gently. If it doesn't work, you know the VW's perfect.

3 FUGITIVES FROM HOSPITAL RECAPTURED

MONROE, N. Y. (AP)—Three escapees from a Pennsylvania hospital for the criminally insane were surprised and recaptured here on Saturday before they got a chance to use rifles they had stolen after their break out.

Patrolman Stanley Miller and Charles McFarland came on the three, resting in a stolen car, as they were making a routine check in this hamlet in southeastern New York.

Turned over to state police, the three admitted their identities and said that until Friday night they had been near the grounds of the Farview State Hospital in Pennsylvania from which they escaped Wednesday afternoon.

The men, considered potentially dangerous, are Ronald Brown, 22, of Pittsburgh; Arthur Pitts, 33, of Philadelphia; and David Dienderfer, 18, of Allentown, Pa. They had been serving time at the hospital for burglary, larceny and aggravated robbery.

STEEL CAR, RIFLES

They stole a car, three 22 calibre rifles, 1,500 rounds of ammunition, clothing and a butcher knife last night from camp To Loa, a children's camp near the hospital grounds. The camp has been vacant since Labor Day except for a caretaker, whose clothing was stolen.

They stopped at a restaurant to get food, then burglarized several stores as they made their way north into New York State. Taken were food, scissors and money.

State Trooper Ronald Gubikowsky said the men were headed for New York City but decided to rest here until daybreak.

They had stopped by a bowling alley when the Monroe policemen spotted them. Two of the men were in the front seat and Pitts, a Negro, was alone in the back.

CAUGHT BY SURPRISE

The policemen came on the men before they could reach for any of the rifles, all loaded.

State police were called and recognized the descriptions of the men and that of the car as having been broadcast following the caretaker's return to the Pennsylvania camp.

The escapees said they had spent the first night following their escape in the woods and then hid in the buildings until the caretaker went away on a shopping trip.

The men had been on a window washing detail at the hospital-prison. They used a ladder and a rope to scale a 35-foot wall at the hospital, then hid about 100 yards from the hospital grounds until they were able to sneak through police lines and into the camp grounds.

A companion in the escape was caught a short time after the break out.

A joint meeting of the Silver Run-Union Mills Clubs will be held Thursday, Oct. 12, in the Charles Carroll School.

May Decide About School Shelters

Schools in the future may provide fallout shelters.

At a meeting of the York County School Board Thursday night, York Superintendent Joseph R. Wilson said he had been notified that the State Council of Education will decide next month whether all new public schools must be equipped with fallout shelters.

Adams County Superintendent C. P. Keefe said he has not received the memorandum on the plans of the state council of education which the York authorities understood had been sent all county school boards.

61ST HR FOR MARIS GIVES YANKEES WIN

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Roger Maris will go down in the books as the man who hit more home runs than Babe Ruth in one season but didn't break the Babe's record.

The catch is the word season. Ruth's season was 154 games—actually 155, including a tie. Maris' season in the expanded 162 game American League was 162 games—163, including a tie. Commissioner Ford Frick ruled Ruth's record could be tied or broken only in 154 decisions.

Maris hit No. 61 Sunday off Tracy Stallard, 24, a Boston relief pitcher from Herald, Va. It came in the fourth inning on a 2-0 pitch and was the only run of a 1-0 Yankee victory on the last day of the season.

BATTLE FOR 10TH

While the Yanks were tuning up for the World Series, opening Wednesday at the Stadium, there was a desperate battle at Kansas City with 10th place at stake.

As it turned out, nobody finished 10th. Kansas City beat Washington 3-2 and the two clubs wound up in a tie for ninth. Jerry Lumpe slammed a home run and a single and drove in all the runs.

Norm Cash won the unofficial batting title with two hits in three at bats for Detroit and a .361 average. Cash hit his 41st homer in the Tigers' 8-3 triumph over Minnesota.

Cleveland announced the firing of Manager Jimmy Dykes at Los Angeles and then defeated Los Angeles, 8-5, with Coach Mel Harder at the helm.

Baltimore and Chicago finished their season Saturday.

Bill Stafford, slated to face Bob Purkey at Cincinnati Saturday in the third series game, pitched six shutout innings and allowed only three hits. The Yanks wound up with a 109-53 record and an eight-game edge over Detroit.

STATE JUDGES WILL GET PAY RAISES SOON

HARRISBURG (AP)—Starting next July 1, Pennsylvania's 206 judges will get pay boosts ranging from $2,500 to $5,000 a year.

Gov. Lawrence has approved a bill that calls for an $819,000-a-year salary increases for all state jurists from the Supreme Court to county courts.

The judges' pay hike was the last of a series of bills signed by Lawrence boosting salaries of state employees, officials and lawmakers by a total of $15 million annually.

VETCOES FULL PAY

At the same time, the governor vetoed legislation that would have permitted jurists to retire on full pay. Present law limits their pensions to 80 per cent of their highest average salary.

In killing the measure, Lawrence called it "actuarially unsound" and said "it could not be justified on any equitable basis."

The bill would have eliminated provisions for reducing pensions depending on the recipient's age.

The judges' pay bill boosts the salary of the chief justice of the Supreme Court from $30,500 to $33,000 while the pay of associate judges goes up from $30,000 to $32,500.

Common pleas judges in districts with more than 150,000 people stand to receive the biggest pay hikes. Their salaries will go from $20,000 to $25,000 a year.

OTHER INCREASES

The president judge of the Superior Court will receive a $2,500 increase from $28,500 to $31,000. Associate judges will make $30,000 a year. They now earn $28,000.

Other increases include: Common pleas judges in districts with more than 150,000 population—$20,000 to $25,000.

Common pleas judges in districts with 100,000 to 150,000 population—$20,000 to $22,500.

Common pleas judges in districts under 100,000 population—$18,000 to $21,500.

Dauphin County (Commonwealth Court)—$25,000 to $27,500.

Philadelphia County Court (formerly Municipal Court)—President judge, $18,500 to $23,000; judges, $18,000 to $22,500.

Allegheny County Court—President judge, $18,500 to $23,000; judges, $18,000 to $22,500.

Allegheny County Juvenile Court—$18,000 to $22,500.

Also signed by Lawrence were bills that will:

—Tighten existing laws governing the ownership of securities by minors

—Increase the powers of the board of arbitration of claims and provide for the appointment of an executive secretary.

BERLIN (AP)—Four East German police fled to the West through the Communist wall across Berlin during Friday night.

West police said they were among 16 persons who escaped in a night filled with incidents caused by youths or drunks getting too close to the border. Red police fired warning shots and threw tear gas grenades.

Apparently fearful of more serious incidents over the weekend, the West Berlin city government appealed to people to stay away from the wall to avert trouble.
